Petersen International Underwriters Further Expands With Important Hire

Valencia, California, September 1, 2016 (Newswire.com) -

Petersen International Underwriters has announced the hiring of Lori Boggs as a Regional Vice President of the firm. Ms. Boggs was previously the National Account Management Vice President of MetLife Insurance Company, and she is one of the country's foremost disability insurance experts.

According to Thomas Petersen, Vice President of Petersen International, "Lori is a very prominent figure in the disability insurance world and we are ecstatic to have her as part of our growing outside-marketing team. Her expertise in the business and her many years of experience in the industry will certainly make a welcomed addition to Petersen International Underwriters." Ms. Boggs will be home-based on the East Coast.
